

I Must Get Away

Now I must get away,
Away from you,
I don't love you,
So it's the best thing to do.

And I must get away,
Away from this place,
I'm sick and tired,
Of winning the chase.

I don't want to be here,
Not anymore,
So right now I'm leaving,
And walking out the door.

Now I'm running away,
As fast as I can,
I was never worthy,
Of being your man.

I had to get away,
To get away from here,
I have to go,
Somewhere dear...

...A place dear to me
A place in my heart,
I didn't love you,
Right from the start.

Now I'm on a beach,
As I slip into the sea,
A place where no-one,
Will ever find me.

But now as I sink,
Sink under the water,
I realise just how much,
I really do want her.

Now I must get away,
As I sink further down,
I want to go back to her,
I don't want to drown.
